

Job Description

Job Title:	Vice President / Senior Director, Projects & Construction APAC
Function:	Projects & Construction
Reports to:	President, APAC
Location of work:	Singapore

The role of Vice President / Senior Director, Projects & Construction for APAC requires the experience in the end-to-end delivery of project from site due diligence, planning, cost and program development, utility services application, contracting and procurement, development permit application, construction, fit-out, quality assurance, environmental safety and health management (EHS), testing and commissioning and achieving practical completion.

Key Responsibilities:

The role of Vice President / Senior Director, Projects & Construction is accountable for completing multiple projects in parallel (both greenfield and fit out), within budget and program. The project will span across regional metros.

This role must develop key metrics to ensure consistency in project governance and reporting. As such, he/ she holds internal and contract Project Managers and project team accountable for meeting the project performance metrics.

The role of Vice President / Senior Director, Projects & Construction will partner with suppliers and general contractors to drive improvement initiatives in safety, efficiency and sustainability.

Requirements

- Proven experience in project delivery across regional metros.
- Bachelor or Master's degree in engineering / Project Management.
- 20+ years in senior management role with track record of delivering multiple projects in parallel. The scale of project portfolio directly managed by the candidate to be around USD 500 million.
- Excellent communication, leadership & influencing skills.
- Experienced in Design Bid Build, Design & Build and other contracting methodology.
- Experience in hyper scale data centre, micro-electronics or other critical infrastructure is preferred